

The Digital Law Journal (DLJ)

is pleased to announce a competition for the best paper on digital law to be published in 2025

Award:

The authors of top five research papers will be rewarded in the following manner:

- 1st position: 100,000 RUB + publication of the manuscript
- 2nd position: 70,000 RUB + publication of the manuscript
- 3rd position: 50,000 RUB + publication of the manuscript
- 4th and 5th positions: publication of the manuscript

Main conditions:

1. Only those applicants who have a degree in law — bachelor degree, master degree, Ph.D. or their alternatives are eligible to take part in the competition.
2. The award is granted for the best research paper in the field of digital law that reflects original ideas on a particular problem. The subject of manuscript should comply with the Journal's policies
3. The research papers can be submitted either in English or in Russian. The research papers can be prepared by one author or can be co-authored (no more than three authors).

Submission timeline:

- The applicants should submit a brief CV and an abstract not exceeding 500 words with a proposed title of the research paper by March 1, 2025
- The full text of the paper is to be submitted by May 1, 2025

Please find all the details on the website:

<https://www.digitallawjournal.org>

Follow us on Telegram:

<https://t.me/digitallawjournal>

@DIGITALLAWJOURNA
L